November - December 2009

November 4 7:00 p.m.

Barter Theatre Company presents "Of Mice and Men" based on John Steinbeck's depression era classic. A compelling tale of two migrant workers, George and Lennie dream of a place of their own. But as all too often happens, "the best laid schemes o' mice and men" go awry in John Steinbeck's timeless masterpiece.

University of Wyoming Dance Department presents
"Six Songs of Ellis Island"
November 23rd 6:30 p.m.

In the early 20th century, over 12 million immigrants entered the U.S. through the gates of Ellis Island, forever changing the cultural and genealogical landscape of our country.

This original work uses dance, film and audio interviews, and actor re-enactments to capture the voices of immigrants who passed through Ellis Island as children in one of the greatest human migrations ever. Each "song" represents a different stage of the immigration experience, and every effort is made to preserve the stories as originally told. Six Songs of Ellis Island is supported in part by a grant from the Wyoming Arts Council, through funding from the Wyoming State Legislature and the National Endowment for the Arts, which believes that a great nation deserves great art.

Men of Worth

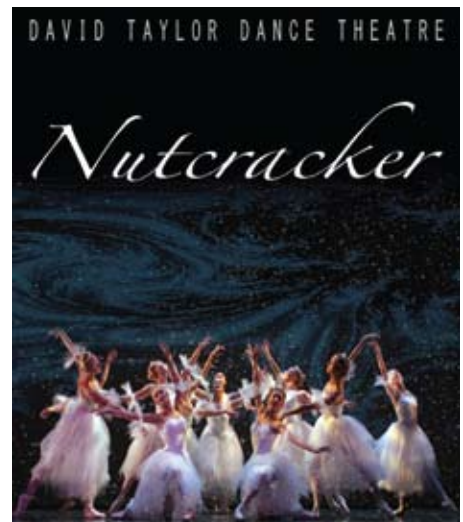

November 13 6:30p.m.

The folk-music duo, Men of Worth, was formed by James Keigher (Ireland) and Donnie Macdonald (Scotland) in 1986. Both exiles, it was through the Celtic music scene in Southern California that James and Donnie first met, and within a couple of years a partnership developed that was simultaneously serious and fun. While remaining true to their Gaelic roots, Men of Worth have successfully evolved as entertainers. A natural progression toward education and travel has sealed the next decade as an exciting and pioneering era for the versatile duo. Together, Men of Worth blend their voices with harmony and support their collection of songs with their varied selection of instruments. They have a very simple approach to their presentation, and in keeping with tradition, remain true to the music and story. Their show is a unique combination of humor, exciting tunes, and soulful, heartfelt ballads. Men of Worth are an international act, and have earned much respect and success in two decades of touring. Performing concerts, festivals, and having recorded seven albums, Men of Worth continue the very tradition from which they evolved.
